

Puppy — design Eero Aarnio, 2005

Me Too is Magis' collection of accessories and furniture created by major designers especially for the world of children, and Puppy is one of the most iconic products in the collection. Created by Eero Aarnio, master of Scandinavian design culture and innovator on the international scene ever since the sixties, Puppy is a little dog as imagined by the great designer, whose aim was to see through children's eyes when they draw puppies. A head, a body and legs: essential, rounded shapes that come to life in a friendly, playful, durable and colourful object. Made of polyethylene, and produced using rotational moulding, the piece is guaranteed to be both sturdy and lightweight, ready for endless moments of play and fun, both in the house and out of doors. Puppy comes in orange, white, green and "dalmatian", and in four different sizes, all made to measure for children, their tastes and their spaces.

Eero Aarnio

The Finnish designer Eero Aarnio (born in 1932 in Helsinki) is one of the greatest innovators of modern furniture design.

His work as a designer began in the early 60s, when he opened his own design studio in Helsinki.

Eero Aarnio began experimenting with plastics, vivid colors and organic forms, breaking away from traditional design conventions.

Many of Aarnio's now iconic works are included in the world's most prestigious museums.
